Help through the Holidays

Because losing a loved one can be an especially difficult and lonely time during the holidays, we offer special programs during the holiday season.

Coping With Loss of Any Kind During the Holidays

Designed to help adults facing the holidays after a significant loss of any kind, including the death of a loved one; a decline in health or independence; loss of a job, a home, a marriage, or a beloved pet. Also offers ideas on how to reach out to grieving friends and relatives. If you would like more information, please call us.

Tree of Life Celebration

Tuesday, December 13, 5 pm - 6 pm
Hospice House, Landrum SC

An annual tradition for many families since 2000, our handmade keepsake ornament is the perfect end-of-year giving opportunity and a wonderful way to honor loved ones during the holiday.

Order your ornament(s) with loved one's name or nickname printed on it by Dec. 5.

Then come celebrate with us and take your ornament home.
